Powers' Ex Is Married

EX-MRS. POWERS

AIKEN, S. C., Feb. 5

(UPI).—Barbara Gay Powers, ex-wife of former U-2 pilot Francis Gary Powers, and William Reynolds, a resident of her hometown, were married yesterday, it was disclosed today.

County Probate Judge Carl Hair performed the ceremony in his office. Office employees witnessed the civil ceremony.

The former Mrs. Powers, 28, and the one-time U-2 pilot whose high-altitude reconnaissance plane went down inside Russia in 1960, were divorced in 1962.

Last Oct. 26, Mr. Powers married Mrs. Claudia Edwards Downey, a former employee of the Central Intelligence Agency, in Catlett, Va.

Mr. Powers, who spent 20 months in a Soviet prison on an espionage conviction, divorced his wife of seven years on grounds she was habitually drunk. They had no children.

Mr. Reynolds listed his age as 33. Both are from Milledgeville, Ga.
